

The Sunbury Shores Arts & Nature Centre Newsletter

Welcome to the Sunbury Shores' newsletter – The Water Street Journal. The Journal keeps you up to date with current & upcoming exhibitions, programs events and other news. Enjoy!

Thank you to Everett Lord for donating wood for workbenches.

Thank you to the Fairmont Algonquin and Alex Haun of Savour the Restaurant for food donations.

Thank you to Bunny Hodgson for lining up food donations.

Thank you to Patty Pendleton for donating framing materials.

Thank you to Simone Ritter for volunteering her time to demonstrate her watercolour painting techniques as part of the How Do They Do That? series.

Thank you to everyone who donated money in memory of Hank Mulder.

Sign up now for Summer Courses

Now is the time to sign up for arts and nature courses by the sea!

This summer, Sunbury Shores has a variety of courses for adults including Pottery, Mosaics, Encaustic Painting, Metal Sculpture and Mountain Biking. There are also great courses available for those who are interested in Rug Hooking, Felting and Basket Weaving. New this year, many of the courses feature a guided boat tour!

For the kids, we have a full program that includes workshops like For the Birds, Garden Art, Maskmania, and more – for ages 5-8 and 9-12.

Class sizes are limited and courses are already starting to fill, so sign up soon to avoid disappointment!

Pick up a brochure at Sunbury Shores or visit us online at www.sunburyshores.org/courses.shtml

Volunteer spotlight – Ladd Dunfield

Ladd in the office at Sunbury Shores.

Ladd is a familiar face at Sunbury Shores. As a supporter of both the arts and nature, Ladd volunteers his time at Sunbury Shores whenever he can. In addition to “phone duty”, Ladd also runs errands and helps with delivering promotional material to schools and other locations.

Thank you Ladd for all you do!

DO YOU LOVE ARTS & NATURE? Please consider becoming a volunteer at Sunbury Shores. We are also currently seeking people who are interested in sitting on Fundraising and Membership committees. Call Ruth at 529-3386 to get your name on the list.
