GOOD NEWS

CLASS AWARD WINNER

During graduation services at SJDA this past June, Lauren McFarlane was presented with the Fine Arts Award from Robert Van de Peer, an instructor in the CLASS (Children Learning Art at Sunbury Shores) program. Congratulations Lauren!

CLASS ALUM HEADS TO MOUNT ALLISON

Former SJDA student Courtney Lord has started her first year of studies in the Fine Arts program at Mount Allison University. Courtney credits her time in the CLASS Program at Sunbury Shores for showing her that a career in art could be part of her future. Congratulations Courtney!

Get creative this fall at Sunbury

Beginning this October, Sunbury Shores Arts & Nature Centre will again be offering a wide variety of creative courses for adults and children.

Courses this fall include Painting Still Life using Acrylics, Pottery, Drawing Nature with Ink, Stained Glass Suncatchers and more. For the kids there will be Saturday morning art classes as well as Art for Moms and Tots. Also, watch for Free Family Sundays and the How Do They Do That? series – coming soon to Sunbury Shores!

Look for all the details to arrive in your mailbox, and keep checking our website at www.sunburyshores.org and get ready to say, "I can do that!" and "My kids can do that!"

Guest artists at Sunbury Shores

Attention Artists and Naturalists:

Are you interested in teaching a course or giving a talk at Sunbury Shores? If so, we want to hear from YOU!

Email: us at education@sunburyshores.org

Sunbury Shores is pleased to host three guest artists during the Two Countries One Bay Art Studio Tour taking place September 20th and 21st. Anne Johnstone is a watercolour and pastel artist who lives on St. David Ridge, Mabel Ketcham is a St. Andrews painter and printmaker who teaches art to at-risk youth, Robert Van de Peer is a master printmaker living in St. Andrews. All three artists will be on hand at Sunbury Shores during both days of the studio tour to talk about their work, give demonstrations and chat with visitors to the centre.

Hope to see you there!

Volunteer spotlight – Bunny Hodgson

"I just enjoy helping people and making others feel good. That's really what it's all about."

-Bunny Hodgson

A familiar face at Sunbury Shores, Bunny Hodgson is perhaps one of the centre's longest-running volunteers. From stuffing envelopes, making telephone calls and creating window displays to providing flowers, running trips to the Beaverbrook Art Gallery and organizing fashion shows, Bunny has literally done it all for Sunbury.

Historically, Bunny, along with the help of 40 volunteers, was responsible for organizing one of the centre's most successful annual fundraisers. The Sunbury Shores Annual Benefit Fashion Show began in 1987 and featured food, fashion and fun. Tickets to this popular event regularly sold out. In addition, with her infectious energy, Bunny has through the years rounded up "the troops" to help with various tasks at Sunbury Shores. In fact, she regularly hosted meetings for up to 60 volunteers at her home in St. Andrews.

Today, she continues to be one of Sunbury's biggest supporters. Thank you Bunny!

LOVE ARTS & NATURE? Please consider becoming a volunteer at Sunbury Shores. It is a great way to meet people and share your interests with others. Visit www.sunburyshores.org for details.
